

CODE OF CONDUCT

East Mississauga Community Health Centre - A Branch of LAMP Community Health Centre

Respect, cooperation, and understanding.
EMCHC celebrates diversity and welcomes everyone.

Everyone has rights: to be treated with dignity and respect; to be free from discrimination and harassment; to ask questions; to confidentiality; and to give feedback without fear of consequences.

Staff, clients, and volunteers will create a welcoming and safe place for all.

Harassment, discrimination, violence, threats and abusive behavior will not be tolerated or permitted and may result in suspension from EMCHC.

All complaints are taken seriously and will receive a timely response.

Please follow the rules of EMCHC.

EMCHC is a scent free building, trading or selling drugs, or possession of weapons is not permitted.

Expectations at EMCHC include all members holding each other responsible for upholding this code.

Consider that we may be obligated to report to the appropriate authorities if we are aware: that you are going to try to hurt yourself, or someone else; that you are in danger; about abuse of a person; or if you threaten, harass, or discriminate against another person.

Those who wish to help EMCHC build a healthy community are encouraged to participate, take leadership, join LAMP membership, or volunteer.

HOW TO GIVE FEEDBACK

If you have a complaint, compliment, or suggestion for EMCHC, you can: talk to a program supervisor or manager or fill out a comment card and put it in the boxes provided on location. All clients, staff, and students are invited to give feedback or make a complaint without fear of consequences.
